

Please do not allow this broadcast ownership bill to go through. The effect will not be healthy competition, but, at best, a homogenization of thought, music, etc. Imagine Clear Channel as your only station. American values should not go to the highest bidder; small, independent, LOCAL media need voices.